

DISTINCTIVES OF INTERNATIONAL MESSENGERS

Short-term Adult Mission Projects for teams from North American churches (two weeks in length) aimed at impacting the church here and growing the Central and Eastern European church.

- Relationship-based evangelism and discipleship
- Ministry experience gained is extremely practical and applicable to ministry in the North American church
- Thorough training and materials geared for both going and coming home
- Short-term projects lay a foundation for IM career staff's work with local churches in Central and Eastern Europe and include:
 - Conversational English Camps
 - Marriage Quests
 - Discipleship Camps
 - Family English Camps
 - Women's Conferences
 - Pastors/Elders Conferences
 - Specialty Adult English Camps - Business & Education
 - Evangelistic Soccer & Softball Camps
 - Men's Accountability Conferences
- Experience in developing long-term relationships between North American churches and areas, countries, cities and local national churches of Central and Eastern Europe

Missionary Training Centers for adults and families with a call into missions from secular work (12 to 24-month program).